

Youth score with midnight basketball

YOUNG people in Midland can soon eliminate boredom with a midnight basketball tournament.

Scheduled to start in April, the program is being introduced by the East Metro Crime Prevention

Unit and the City of Swan as a way to positively influence local youth.

First Class Constable Robyn Cottman said the competitions would be held during peak crime times at weekends.